Tuition Fee Exemption for the second semester for Sudden Income Loss due to the COVID-19 situation

If you meet both "1. Applicant" and "2. Application criteria" listed below, you can apply for the Tuition Fee exemption for the second semester for Sudden Income Loss due to the COVID-19 situation. Tuition Fee exemption on this appendix is different from the regular Osaka University Tuition Fee Exemption for the second semester and selection will be made based on different criteria.

The Tuition Fee Exemption will be sponsored by the government's special budget, in case the government does not provide the special budget, your application will be forwarded to the regular Osaka University Tuition Fee Exemption.

Note 1. If you are eligible for 高等教育修学支援制度(receiving financial support or planning to apply), apply for its 家計急変採用.

Note 2. Student, "2. Application criteria" on the instructions do not apply to and wishes to apply for the regular Osaka University Tuition Fee Exemption, read "Instructions for Application for Osaka University Exemption, Deferred Payment or Payment by Installments of the Tuition Fee" and apply for the Tuition Fee Exemption. If you do not meet the requirements in the instructions, you cannot apply.

Application instructions vary depend on student, please apply with the right application instructions (Undergraduate Enrolled in 2021・・・Application Instructions 【A】, Undergraduate admitted in/before 2020・・・Application Instructions 【B】, Graduate Student・・・Application Instructions 【C】).

1. Applicant

Due to the COVID-19 situation, undergraduates and graduates with decreased household supporter 's(※1) income(※2) compared to the time before the outbreak.

※1 Household supporter

•Household supporter for application category "General" is applicant's father/mother, or the person supporting the household in place of the applicant's father/mother.

•Household supporter for application category "Self-supporting student" is applicant and the applicant's spouse

•Household supporter for application category "Un-sponsored international student" is applicant and the applicant's spouse (in case the spouse lives in Japan)

Application category	Requirements
General student	The applicant does not fall under either of the below two categories.
Self-supporting student*	All of the following three conditions must be met: 1. The applicant does not live with applicant's father/mother or Household Supporter (nor with the spouse's father/mother). 2. The applicant (and/or applicant's spouse) earns an income for which an income tax return is filed and an income certificate is issued. 3. The applicant does not qualify as a dependent of applicant's father/mother or Household Supporter under the Income Tax Act.
Un-sponsored international student	The applicant is a privately financed student with a visa status of "Student."

* In principle, "Self-supporting student" is an applicant who earns (and/or applicant's spouse earns) sufficient and continuous income to cover all the expenses for a whole year and make living on his/her/their own income. In case of doubt, the university will check the requirements and advise the applicant to change the application category to "General student".

※2 Income

•Calculate your income based on documents (wage slip etc.) show decrease after the COVID-19 situation

Salaried Employee・・・In principle, household supporter's income in the latest three months multiplied by 4 (refer to Form13-1 or 13-2)

Worker other than salaried employee (self-employed worker)・・・Household supporter's net income (gross income minus expenses) in the latest three months multiplied by 4 (refer to Form13-3)

2. Application criteria

Applicant must meet both (1) and (2)

(1) Receipts of financial support from the national or local public organization for business owner or individual who suffered income decrease due to the COVID-19 situation

or document shows income of household supporters was decreased by more than 50% compared to the income in 2020 can be submitted.

(2) Income after the COVID-19 situation stays within income limit for tuition fee exemption.

*The university will check (2), there will be no further step for applicant.
