Time-Bound Educational and Research Organizations

Before the reorganization of national universities as national university corporations, the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (“MEXT”) determined the lifespans of time-bound educational and research organizations of national universities in consideration of their features, necessities and other aspects and requested budget allocations for such organizations under law. Since the reorganization, however, decisions concerning the lifespans of time-bound organizations have been left to the discretion of each university, and many universities have chosen not to determine the lifespans of their organizations.

While Osaka University, since its reorganization as a university corporation, has been dealing with the issue of organizational lifespan on a case by case basis, the following rules shall apply for organizational lifespan hereafter in principle.

1. Joint-Use Facilities, etc.

(1) In case of facilities to be established in the future, whether to set a lifespan or not shall be determined case by case, based on the following principles:

- (i) If a facility receives a limited-term subsidy such as the Special Education and Research Funds of MEXT or it is likely to require significant organizational change due to some fixed-time engagement, a lifespan shall be set for the facility, and the role and size of the facility shall be examined upon termination of its lifespan.
- (ii) In principle, a lifespan shall be set for any virtual organization with no dedicated staff.

- (2) Time-bound facilities established before the reorganization of the University as a university corporation shall remain in existence for an unfixed term beyond termination of their lifespans.
- (3) In case of facilities, whether time-bound or not, established after the reorganization of the University as a university corporation, their lifespans or absence thereof, as the case may be, may be reconsidered based on the principles stated in (1) above.
- (4) The lifespan of a facility shall be set with careful consideration to avoid hindering the personnel management of the facility.

2. Facilities attached to Divisions

Decision as to whether to set a lifespan or not for any organization, whether newly established or reorganized, shall be left to the discretion of each Division.

Procedures for setting a lifespan stated above shall be deliberated by the Education and Research Council.
