Application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for Both the First and Second Semesters

You can apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for both the first and second semesters at the same time. In this case, you do not need to file a separate application, "change of application," for the second semester.

Please pay attention to the following when going through the application procedures.

- ◆ If you plan to apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for both the first and second semesters of the 2020-2021 academic year, you are required, in principle, to select "Apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for Both the First and Second Semesters" when filing your application for the first semester.
- ◆ Under any of the following circumstances, you cannot apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for both the first and second semesters at the same time. In this case, you must apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. separately for the first and second semesters.

- You will be graduating from or completing your course (or advancing to a higher course or otherwise be enrolled in a different course) at Osaka University midway through the current academic year.
- You will be remaining in the course for extra years from the second semester of the current academic year for the first time since your enrollment in Osaka University.
- You will be taking a leave of absence or withdrawing from Osaka University midway through the current academic year.

- ◆ If you are applying for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the first and second semesters at the same time, you should report your household members and household income as of April 1, 2021.
- ◆ Even if you apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the first and second semesters at the same time, you have to file a separate application for the second semester if any changes have occurred in your circumstances (e.g., application category, household structure, school enrollment status, household income status) between April 1, 2021 and October 1, 2021. For details, read the application instructions to be issued at the end of August, 2021.

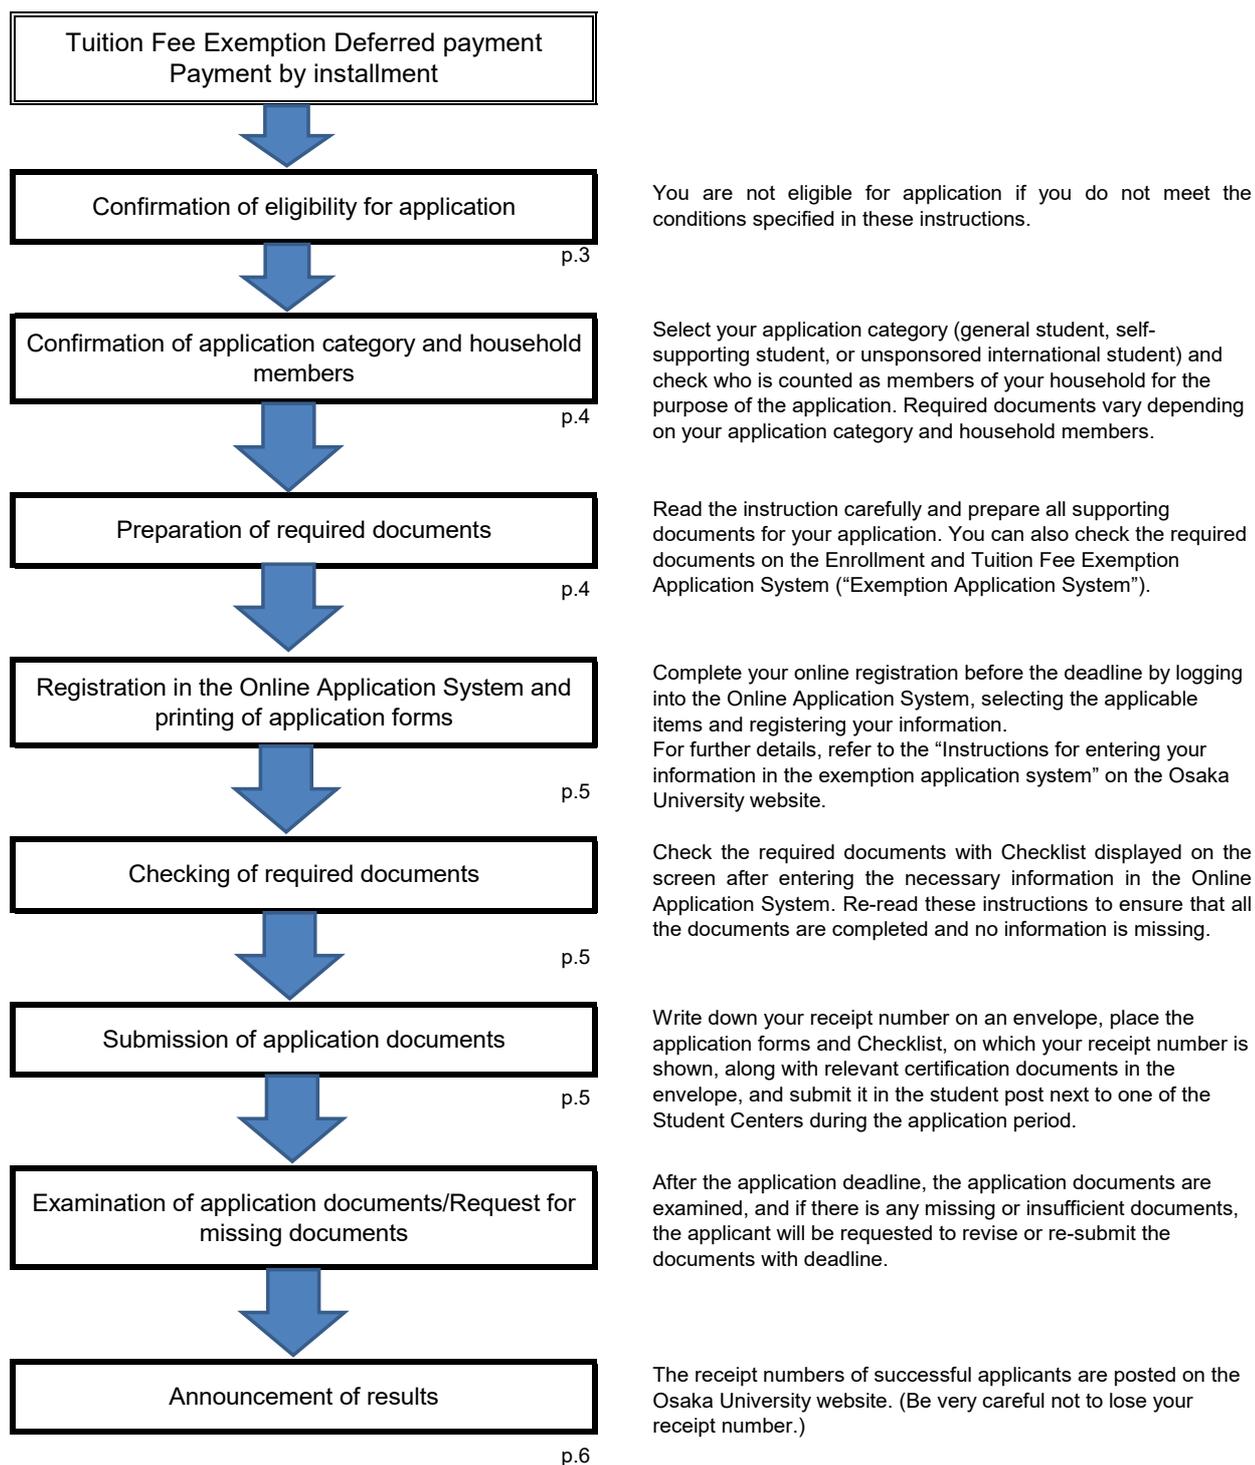

If you apply for "both 1st and 2nd semesters," and are notified your scholarship result after April 2, 2021, you do not need to re-apply "change your application" for the second semester in case your scholarship is one of JASSO scholarship, MEXT scholarship, private funding scholarship applied via Osaka University, or Osaka University scholarship and there is no other change in your application. Information on these scholarships is also managed in the university therefore if there is any change other than these scholarships, please re-apply "change your application" for the second semester.

- ◆ Even if you apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the first and second semesters at the same time, your application will be considered separately for each semester, which means that the decision made for the first semester may differ from the decision made for the second semester. Only limited numbers of application's will be accepted due to strict budget restrictions.

Example 1 First semester: Total Exemption → Second Semester: Half Exemption

Example 2 First semester: Total Exemption → Second Semester: Not approved

Flow from preparation for application through to announcement of result

1. Confirmation of eligibility for application

Before applying for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., check your eligibility for application. Your application will be considered only if you meet the specified conditions. Those who received scholarship including tuition fee from the government cannot apply for this exemption.

※In principle, undergraduate who is applying for 高等教育修学支援制度 is not allowed to apply for tuition fee deferred payment and payment by installments, even though 1. Tuition Fee 2. "Eligibility for applying for Deferred payment or payment by installment" below applies.

I. Tuition Fee (Apply only one from Tuition Fee Exemption, Deferred payment, or payment by installment)

1. Eligibility for applying for exemption

(Undergraduate admitted in/before 2020 and condition below applies)

- (1) Student having significant difficulty with the payment of the tuition fee.
- (2) Student having significant difficulty with the payment of the tuition fee due to the death of the academic sponsor or due to the occurrence of a windstorm, flood or other natural disaster affecting the student or the Academic sponsor within 6 months.

2. Eligibility for applying for Deferred payment or payment by installment

- Student having difficulty with the payment for financial reasons or other unavoidable reasons.

- ◆ The University does not publicize the level of academic achievement that is deemed to be "higher than a certain level."
- ◆ Even if you meet either condition (1) or (2) for applying for exemption of the tuition fee, your application cannot be accepted if any of the following cases apply.
 1. You have not paid the tuition fee for the immediately preceding semester.
 2. You have already paid the tuition fee for the semester for which you are planning to apply for exemption.
 3. You have repeated the year without any justifiable reason. (This does not apply in the case of (2) above.)
 4. You have remained in the course beyond the standard number of years without any justifiable reason. (This does not apply in the case of (2) above.)
- ◆ The University will conduct screening of applicants who meet the abovementioned conditions and will determine which applicants to accept for total exemption, half exemption, and deferred payment, etc. (It should be noted that the University has only a limited budget for Enrollment/Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. Therefore, some applicants, even if sufficiently qualified, might not be accepted for exemption, etc.)

2. Confirmation of application category and household members

◆ To apply for exemption or deferred payment or payment by installments of the tuition fee for the first semester or for both the first and second semesters, select the application category applicable to you as of April 1, 2021 from the options shown in the following table.

Application category	Requirement
Self-supporting student*	All of the following three conditions must be met: 1. The applicant does not live with his or her father/mother or Household Supporter (or with the spouse's father/mother). 2. The applicant (or his or her spouse) earns an income for which an income tax return is filed and an income certificate is issued. 3. The applicant does not qualify as a dependent of his or her father/mother or Household Supporter under the Income Tax Act.
Un-sponsored international student	The applicant is a privately financed student with a visa status of "Student."
General student	The applicant does not fall under either of the above two categories.

* In principle, undergraduates cannot apply in the category of "Self-supporting student." Certification documents to be submitted to verify your status as a self-supporting student are as shown in Form 3 "Self-Supporting Student's Income Statement." Be sure to check this form.

◆ Individuals counted as your household members
Depends on the application category, household members vary.

Household members		Self-supporting student	Un-sponsored international	General student
(1)	Applicant (and the applicant's spouse if the applicant is a self-supporting student or un-sponsored international student)	●	●	●
(2)	Applicant's father/mother, or the academic supporter in place of the applicant's father/mother ("Household Supporter")	/	★	●
(3)	Person(s) qualifying as dependent(s) of the Household Supporter or the applicant under the Income Tax Act, regardless of whether or not such person(s) lives with the applicant	●	★	●

●: Counted as the applicant's household member.

★: Counted as the applicant's household member only if the person resides in Japan.

Persons who fall under the category numbered (2) or (3) in the above table are counted as members of your household (counted in the number of household members). In this case, certification documents for all these persons must be submitted.

In principle, the applicant cannot be the Household Supporter, with the exception of a self-supporting student, in which case the applicant (or the applicant's spouse) is deemed to be the Household Supporter.

The applicant's grandfather(s), grandmother(s), brother(s) and sister(s) not falling under category (2) or (3) above are not counted as the applicant's household members, regardless of whether or not they live with the applicant. Therefore, registration in the Exemption Application System and submission of certification documents are not required for them.
