◆ The students who have completed application both first and second semesters; Your application will be considered separately for each semester, which means that the decision made for the first semester (from April to September) may differ from the decision made for the second semester (from October to March).

◆ Even if you decide to withdraw from or take a leave of absence from Osaka University before the results of the application screening are announced, or it becomes likely that you will complete your course within six months, you are still required to pay the tuition fee for the current semester. In this case, you should cancel your application by completing the necessary procedure at one of the Student Centers. You cannot apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the semester in which you plan to withdraw from, take a leave of absence from or complete your course at Osaka University.

◆ Submitted documents will not be returned to you. You may be asked to submit additional documents other than those specified herein if it is deemed necessary for screening purposes.

◆ If any documents are found to be missing or any questions arise as to your application during the screening process, you will be asked to submit the missing documents or answer the questions even after the application period is over. Please respond quickly when contacted by the Student Center. We will contact you by email, so please register your valid email address on the system. If you fail to submit missing or additional documents by the designated deadline, your application will not be processed for the reason of insufficient document.

◆ If, after an application is accepted, any documents submitted for the application are found to include false information or to have been forged, then the acceptance will be cancelled and the applicant will be required to pay the enrollment/tuition fee immediately.

◆ All international students are required to submit both-side copies of Resident card.

◆ For international student, we may re-check your submitted financial capacity document in case of doubt.

Instructions to students who have applied for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for both the first and second semesters of the 2021-2022 academic year

If you have applied for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for both the first and second semesters of the 2021-2022 academic year, you don't have to re-apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, in principle.

However, you have to re-apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. if any of the following events occurred between the time of application in the first semester (April 1, 2021) and the time of application in the second semester (October 1, 2021). In this case, select "Reapplication due to change(s) in application information provided for both semesters" on the Exemption Application System, and fill in the form that appears on the screen.

Reapplication is required only if any of the following cases apply. (For example, you don't have to re-apply for change in the amount of income or pension, if any.)

It should be noted that when re-applying for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., you have to submit all the forms and certification documents required for application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., not just documents relevant to the change. You are also required to fill in all the fields of the form on the Exemption Application System.

◆ Change in the number of family members and/or household members

No.	Reason	Remarks/example cases
1	Increase/decrease in number of household members	Household Supporter died. Sibling has married or student has entered employment (becoming no longer qualified as a dependent of the Household Supporter). Brother left employment and became father's dependent.

◆ Change in household status

No.	Reasons	Remarks/example cases
2	Recognition as a person(s) with a disability
3	Addition/removal of recipient(s) of long-term medical care and person(s) recognized as in need of long-term care
4	Damage due to fire, windstorm, flood, theft, etc.
5	Increase/decrease in number of students
6	Change in commuting category	The applicant began living alone/living in the family's home and thus needs to change the commuting category from "Family's home" to "Other than family's home" or vice versa.)
7	Change in application category	The applicant began living alone from the second semester as a self-supporting student, and thus needs to change the application category from "General student" to "Self-supporting student." (To be recognized as a self-supporting student, the "Conditions to be qualified as a self-supporting student" set separately have to be met.)

◆ Changes in income status of Household Supporter (father/mother or the person who supports household in place of father/mother); and the applicant (and his or her spouse)

No.	Reasons	Remarks/example cases
8	Family member(s)/applicant entered/left employment, whether regular or part-time.	* Mother began working part-time. Father re-entered employment after having been unemployed for a while. Father left employment.
9	Family member(s)/applicant began/stopped receiving a scholarship.	A letter of acceptance was received by the scholarship applicant. (Not necessarily required to re-apply, even if there is a change)
10	Family member(s)/applicant began/stopped receiving Osaka University Fellowship Program(tentative name) (except tuition fee exemption)
11	Family member(s)/applicant began/stopped receiving WISE Program (Doctoral Program for World-leading Innovative &amp; Smart Education) (except tuition fee exemption)
12	Family member(s)/applicant began/stopped receiving a pension or public employees' pension.	* No need to re-apply for changing pension amount.
13	Family member(s)/applicant began/stopped receiving unemployment allowance.	*
14	Family member(s)/applicant began/stopped receiving injury and disease allowance.	*
15	Family member(s)/applicant began/stopped receiving child-rearing allowance.	*
16	Family member(s)/applicant became eligible/ineligible to receive public welfare assistance.

*Reapplication is required only when change occurred in income status of the Household Supporter and/or in relationship between a family member(s)/applicant as a dependent and the Household Supporter.

◆ Others

No.	Reasons	Remarks/example cases
17	Enrollment in the course beyond the minimum period of study as of October 1, 2021	The applicant is to remain in the course beyond the minimum period of study for the first time as of October 1 due to leave of absence, etc.
18	Change in kind of application	The applicant for "deferred payment of the tuition fee" for both the first and second semesters hopes to change the application to "exemption of the tuition fee."
99	Withdrawal of application	Due to an increase in income, the applicant chooses to withdraw the application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., for both the first and second semesters. (The applicant chooses to cancel the application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., for the second semester.)

[How to check if you need to re-apply when there is a change in your scholarship situation]

Students who have applied for the Tuition Fee Exemption for both first and second semesters together and whose scholarship situation has changed since April 2, 2021, generally, have to re-apply. There are, however, some cases in which you do not have to re-apply; The scholarship is Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship or the scholarship you applied through the offices of Osaka university.

- If there are any other changes in your financial situation, you must re-apply.
- If you applied for the scholarship directly (not through Osaka university offices) to the scholarship foundation, you must re-apply.

Guide to application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester of the 2021-2022 academic year

See the following flow chart to check whether you need to apply or re-apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester or withdraw your application.

- ◆ If you applied only for Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc. in the first semester and hope for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, you have to submit an application.
- ◆ It should be noted that when re-applying for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, you have to submit all the forms and certification documents required for application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., not just documents relevant to the change. You are also required to fill in all the fields of the form on the Exemption Application System. (This does not apply if you withdraw your application.)
- ◆ See "Instructions to students who have applied for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for both the first and second semesters of the 2020-2021 academic year" on p. 2 to check the events for which you have to re-apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc.

Flow from preparation for application through to announcement of result

Read top page of the instruction carefully in advance

You are not eligible for application if you do not meet the conditions specified in these instructions.

Submit the "Application Form for Students Who Plan to Apply" along with all other necessary documents to the designated office as a part of the enrollment procedure.

Select your application category (general student, self-supporting student, or unsponsored international student) and check who is counted as members of your household for the purpose of the application. Required documents vary depending on your application category and household members.

Read the instruction carefully and prepare all supporting documents for your application. You can also check the required documents on the Enrollment and Tuition Fee Exemption Application System ("Exemption Application System").

Complete your online registration before the deadline by logging into the Online Application System, selecting the applicable items and registering your information. For further details, refer to the "Instructions for entering your information in the exemption application

Check the required documents with Checklist displayed on the screen after entering the necessary information in the Online Application System. Re-read these instructions to ensure that all the documents are completed and no information is missing.

Write down your receipt number on an envelope, place the application forms and Application Checklist, on which your receipt number is shown, along with relevant certification documents in the envelope, and put the envelope in the on-campus submission Box provided for that purpose at any one of the Student Centers during the application period.

After the application deadline, the application documents are examined, and if there is any missing or insufficient documents, the applicant will be requested to revise or re-submit the documents with

The receipt numbers of successful applicants are posted on the Osaka University website. (Be very careful not to lose your receipt number.)

1. Confirmation of eligibility for application

Before applying for Enrollment/Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., check your eligibility for application. Your application will be considered only if you satisfy the specified conditions. Those who received scholarship including tuition fee from the government cannot apply for it.

I. Enrollment Fee (enrollment fee exemption and/or deferred payment)

1. Eligibility for applying for exemption

Graduate student whom one of these applies

- (1) Student having difficulty with the payment of the enrollment fee for financial reasons
- (2) Student having significant difficulty with the payment of the enrollment fee due to the death of the Academic Expense Payer or due to the occurrence of a windstorm, flood or other natural disaster affecting the student or the Academic Expense Payer within one year prior to the student's enrollment in Osaka University
- (3) Student recognized by the President as having a valid reason for applying for exemption of the enrollment fee, similar in substance to the reasons specified in (2) above ※

※ (Example)

The Academic Expense Payer lost his/her job or retired from work due to an unavoidable reason such as bankruptcy of the company, dismissal, or illness within one year prior to the student's enrollment in Osaka University, and the estimated annual income to be earned by the Academic Expense Payer, if re-employed, is lower than the amount obtained by multiplying the lowest hourly wage of the prefecture where the Academic Expense Payer lives by 2,080 (40 hours x 52 weeks).

2. Eligibility for applying for deferred payment

Graduate student whom one of these applies

- (1) Student having difficulty with the payment of the enrollment fee for financial reasons
- (2) Student having significant difficulty with the payment of the enrollment fee due to the death of the Academic Expense Payer or due to the occurrence of a windstorm, flood or other natural disaster affecting the student or the Academic Expense Payer within one year prior to the student's enrollment in Osaka University

II. Tuition Fee (exemption, deferred payment or payment by installments)

1. Eligibility for applying for exemption

Graduate student whom one of these applies

- (1) Student having difficulty with the payment of the tuition fee for financial reasons
- (2) Student having significant difficulty with the payment of the tuition fee due to the death of the Academic Expense Payer or due to the occurrence of a windstorm, flood or other natural disaster affecting the student or the Academic Expense Payer within six months prior to the payment day of the tuition fee for the semester (or within one year in the case of a newly enrolled student)

2. Eligibility for applying for deferred payment or payment by installments

Student having difficulty with the payment of the tuition fee for financial or any other valid reason

◆ The University does not publicize the level of academic achievement that is deemed to be "higher than a certain level."

◆ Even if you meet either condition (1) or (2) for applying for exemption of the tuition fee, your application cannot be accepted if any of the following cases apply.

1. You have not paid the tuition fee for the immediately preceding semester.
2. You have already paid the tuition fee for the semester for which you are planning to apply for exemption.
3. You have repeated the year without any justifiable reason. (This does not apply in the case of (2) above.)
4. You have remained in the course beyond the standard number of years without any justifiable reason. (This does not apply in the case of (2) above.)

◆ The University will conduct screening of applicants who meet the abovementioned conditions and will determine which applicants to accept for total exemption, half exemption, and deferred payment, etc. (It should be noted that the University has only a limited budget for Enrollment/Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. Therefore, some applicants, even if sufficiently qualified, might not be accepted for exemption, etc.)

2. Submission of "Application Form for Students Who Plan to Apply" (Applicable only to applicants for Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc.)

Applicants for Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc. are required to submit the Application Form for Students Who Plan to Apply (Application Form for Students Who Plan to Apply for Exemption or Deferred Payment of 2021-2022 Academic Year Enrollment Fee), instead of the enrollment fee receipt, along with all other necessary documents when completing the enrollment procedure.

- ◆ You cannot apply for Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc. after paying the enrollment fee.
- ◆ It should be noted that even if you submit the abovementioned Application Form for Students Who Plan to Apply as part of the enrollment procedure, your application will be deemed invalid if you fail to complete the procedures of [5. Registration in the Online Application System and printing required forms] and [7. Submission of application documents] to be detailed below within the specified period.

3. Confirmation of application category and household members

◆ Application category

To apply for October Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc., Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, or to re-apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, select the application category applicable to you as of October 1 from the options shown in the following table.

Application category	Requirement
Self-supporting student*	All of the following three conditions must be met: 1. The applicant does not live with his or her father/mother or Household Supporter (or with the spouse's father/mother). 2. The applicant (or his or her spouse) earns an income for which an income tax return is filed and an income certificate is issued. 3. The applicant does not qualify as a dependent of his or her father/mother or Household Supporter under the Income Tax Act.
Un-sponsored international student	The applicant is a privately financed student with a visa status of "Student."
General student	The applicant does not fall under either of the above two categories.

* Certification documents to be submitted to verify your status as a self-supporting student are as shown in Form 3 "Self-Supporting Student's Income Statement." Be sure to check this form.

◆ Individuals counted as your household members

Depends on the application category, household members vary.

	Household members	Self-supporting student	Un-sponsored international student	General student
(1)	Applicant (and the applicant's spouse if the applicant is a self-supporting student or un-sponsored international student)	●	●	●
(2)	Applicant's father/mother, or the person supporting the household in place of the applicant's father/mother ("Household Supporter")	—	★	●
(3)	Person(s) qualifying as dependent(s) of the Household Supporter or the applicant under the Income Tax Act, regardless of whether or not such person(s) lives with the applicant	●	★	●

●: Counted as the applicant's household member.

★: Counted as the applicant's household member only if the person resides in Japan.

Persons who fall under the category numbered (2) or (3) in the above table are counted as members of your household (counted in the number of household members). In this case, certification documents for all these persons must be submitted.

In principle, the applicant cannot be the Household Supporter, with the exception of a self-supporting student, in which case the applicant (or the applicant's spouse) is deemed to be the Household Supporter.

The applicant's grandfather(s), grandmother(s), brother(s) and sister(s) not falling under category (2) or (3) above are not counted as the applicant's household members, regardless of whether or not they live with the applicant. Therefore, registration in the Exemption Application System and submission of certification documents are not required for them.

4. Preparation of required documents

First, refer to items (1) and (2) below to find out your required documents, and prepare all these documents as early as possible.

- (1) "Required documents for application for Enrollment/Tuition Fee Exemption, etc." shown on and after p. 9
- (2) Checklist (Enter all necessary information other than monetary figures in the Online Application System (at the URL shown in Section 5) and press the "Check the application" button. The relevant forms will be displayed in PDF format, with the Checklist on the 2nd page from last.)
  - ◆ To register all information on the Online Application System, you must prepare the required documents in advance
