

Kamagasaki University of Arts (KamaGei) and Osaka University (OU)

Jointly open "KamaHan" series of seminars in October. The guest lecturer of "KamaHan" 2019 is Harumichi Saito, photographer and author who investigates the possibility of images and languages, including the rich world of sign languages. After a kick-off event in OU Toyonaka Campus, pre-seminars are held on the history of Cocoroom and KamaGei, works of Saito, and Japanese sign language. With Saito, the participants take photographs in Kamagasaki and talk each other on their own feelings and ways of expressions. An exhibition of their works will take place at the end of the course.
