Students who have applied for the Tuition Fee Exemption for both first and second semesters together and whose scholarship situation has changed since April 2, 2020, generally, have to re-apply. There are, however, some cases in which you do not have to re-apply; The scholarship is Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship or the scholarship you applied through the offices of Osaka university.

- If there are any other changes in your financial situation, you must re-apply.
- If you applied for the scholarship directly (not through Osaka university offices) to the scholarship foundation, you must re-apply.

Guide to application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester of the 2020-2021 academic year

See the following flow chart to check whether you need to apply or re-apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester or withdraw your application.

- ◆ If you applied only for Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc. in the first semester and hope for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, you have to submit an application.
- ◆ It should be noted that when re-applying for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, you have to submit all the forms and certification documents required for application for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., not just documents relevant to the change. You are also required to fill in all the fields of the form on the Exemption Application System. (This does not apply if you withdraw your application.)

After the application period is over, the application documents are examined, and if any documents are found to be missing or insufficient, the applicant is contacted and asked to revise or resubmit the application documents before the results are announced.

The receipt numbers of successful applicants are posted on the Osaka University website. (Be very careful not to lose your receipt number.)

1. Confirmation of eligibility for application

Before applying for Enrollment/Tuition Fee Exemption, etc., check your eligibility for application. Your application will be considered only if you satisfy the specified conditions. ## I. Enrollment Fee

1. Eligibility for applying for exemption

(Undergraduate students)

- (1) Student having significant difficulty with the payment of the enrollment fee due to the death of the person mainly responsible for the payment of the student's academic expenses ("Academic Expense Payer") or due to the occurrence of a windstorm, flood or other natural disaster affecting the student or the Academic Expense Payer within one year prior to the student's enrollment in Osaka University

* (Example)

The Academic Expense Payer lost his/her job or retired from work due to an unavoidable reason such as bankruptcy of the company, dismissal, or illness within one year prior to the student's enrollment in Osaka University, and the estimated annual income to be earned by the Academic Expense Payer, if re-employed, is lower than the amount obtained by multiplying the lowest hourly wage of the prefecture where the Academic Expense Payer lives by 2,080 (40 hours x 52 weeks).

2. Eligibility for applying for deferred payment or payment by installments (Both undergraduate and graduate students)

Student having difficulty with the payment of the tuition fee for financial or any other valid reason

◆ The University does not publicize the level of academic achievement that is deemed to be "higher than a certain level."

◆ Even if you meet either condition (1) or (2) for applying for exemption of the tuition fee, your application cannot be accepted if any of the following cases apply.

1. You have not paid the tuition fee for the immediately preceding semester.

3. You have repeated the year without any justifiable reason. (This does not apply in the case of (2) above.)
4. You have remained in the course beyond the minimum period of study without any justifiable reason. (This does not apply in the case of (2) above.)

◆ The University will conduct screening of applicants who meet the abovementioned conditions and will determine which applicants to accept for total exemption, half exemption, deferred payment, etc. (It should be noted that the University has only a limited budget for Enrollment/Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. Therefore, some applicants, even if sufficiently qualified, might not be accepted for exemption, etc.)

◆ Screening result will be announced each semester. Due to the limited budget, it is highly possible to receive different results for different semester. Please be aware that even though you apply for both 1st and 2nd semester and your situation is unchanged, these results will be different.

- ◆ You cannot apply for Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc. after paying the enrollment fee.
- ◆ It should be noted that even if you submit the abovementioned Application Form for Students Who Plan to Apply as part of the enrollment procedure, your application will be deemed invalid if you fail to complete the procedures of [5. Registration in the Exemption Application System and printing of forms to be submitted] and [7. Submission of application documents] to be detailed below within the specified period.

3. Confirmation of application category and household members

◆ To apply for October Enrollment Fee Exemption, etc., Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, or to re-apply for Tuition Fee Exemption, etc. for the second semester, select the application category applicable to you as of October 1 from the options shown in the following table.

| Application category               | Requirement  |
|------------------------------------|--|
| Self-supporting student*           | All of the following three conditions must be met:1. The applicant does not live with his or her father/mother or Household Supporter (or with the spouse's father/mother).2. The applicant (or his or her spouse) earns an income for which an income tax return is filed and an income certificate is issued.3. The applicant does not qualify as a dependent of his or her father/mother or Household Supporter under the Income Tax Act. |
| Un-sponsored international student | The applicant is a privately financed student with a visa status of "Student."   |
| General student                    | The applicant does not fall under either of the above two categories.  |

* In principle, undergraduate students cannot apply under the category of "Self-supporting student." Certification documents to be submitted to verify your status as a self-supporting student are as shown in Form 3 "Self-Supporting Student's Income Statement." Be sure to check this form.

◆ Individuals counted as your household members

Who can be counted as your household members varies depending on your application category.

| Household members |   | Self-supporting student | Un-sponsored international student | General student |
|-------------------|---|-------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------|
| (1)               | Applicant (and the applicant's spouse if the applicant is a self-supporting student or un-sponsored international student)  | ●                       | ●                                  | ●               |
| (2)               | Applicant's father/mother, or the person supporting the household in place of the applicant's father/mother ("Household Supporter")   | —                       | ★                                  | ●               |
| (3)               | Person(s) qualifying as dependent(s) of the Household Supporter or the applicant under the Income Tax Act, regardless of whether or not such person(s) lives with the applicant | ●                       | ★                                  | ●               |

●: Counted as the applicant's household member.

★: Counted as the applicant's household member only if the person resides in Japan.

Persons who fall under the category numbered (2) or (3) in the above table are counted as members of your household (counted in the number of household members). In this case, certification documents for all these persons must be submitted.

In principle, the applicant cannot be the Household Supporter, with the exception of a self-supporting student, in which case the applicant (or the applicant's spouse) is deemed to be the Household Supporter.

The applicant's grandfather(s), grandmother(s), brother(s) and sister(s) not falling under category (2) or (3) above are not counted as the applicant's household members, regardless of whether or not they live with the applicant. Before clicking on the “Register” button, make completely sure that all the information is correct and nothing is missing.

After entering all necessary information, click on the “Register” button and the “Prepare Application Form” button will be displayed. Click on the “Prepare Application Form” button and print the application forms and the Application Checklist on which your receipt number is shown.
